Leading Taxpayer Group Endorses Burns Cites Critz's Support for Obamacare Tax Hikes

WASHINGTON, PA Today, Citizens Against Higher Taxes endorsed the candidacy of Tim Burns, calling him the best candidate to protect taxpayers.

The group expressed alarm at congressional bureaucrat Mark Critz's troubling record on taxes, including his support for the Obama health care law that raises taxes over $500 billion on working families.

"We are troubled by the recent health care takeover and now efforts to implement a Value Added Tax that your opponent Mark Critz has not ruled out supporting. Even more troubling is Mark Critz's refusal to sign a pledge never to raise taxes," stated Jim Broussard, Chairman of Citizens Against Higher Taxes.

For Pennsylvania taxpayers, the choice between Mark Critz and Tim Burns could not be clearer.

Broussard writes of Burns, "You got into this race to fix our broken system of government, end bailouts, cut wasteful spending and lower taxes. You are the only candidate who has signed the Taxpayer Protection Pledge promising never to raise taxes, and you are the only candidate who has promised to repeal the health care bill that is a half a trillion dollar tax hike."
